Welcome to NORTHSIDE CHURCH OF CHRIST

January 1, 2017

The New Year is a time that many look to accomplish new things. But those new things are often not so new. They are the same things they tried to accomplish last year and didn't. New Year's resolutions often involve self improvement like weight loss, learning new things, new habits, or even dropping bad habits. Often these resolutions are selfish endeavors that never get off the ground. Maybe in this new year we should resolve to be more spiritual in what we do. Instead of setting a large and often unattainable goal set a series of small goals. Like; 1. Come to worship more often, or 2. Sing a little louder, or 3. Take notes during the sermon, or 4. Determine to end every conversation with, "God bless you." Large goals are often to much change to quick. Begin small and allow God to take over a little bit more this New Year.
