LIVE LIKE YOU WERE DYING

Imagine: If you just learned for sure that you were facing death, what questions would come to your mind? How would you react?

Most terminally ill patients tell us:

1. We tend to deny that it is true – we believe it must be a mistake!
2. We feel numb, briefly separated from reality.
3. We get angry about it, feeling that the situation is unfair!
4. We tend to point blame – sometimes we blame God.
5. We seek to bargain or negotiate our way out of the situation.
6. We have acknowledgment and acceptance of our mortality.

How would you respond?

This morning let's look at some important principles we should consider when it comes to our own mortality.

Facing death is something all of us will have to deal with in our lives.

1. For some of us it will be our own eminent death.
2. For others it will involve someone we love.
3. Either way, we should understand something about facing death.

I. Prepare To Start Dying: We Start Dying As Soon As We Are Born Into This World!

- A. A Word About P_____ - James 4:13-17
- B. A Word About P_____ - 2 Kings 20:1-7
- C. A Word About P_____ - Galatians 6:2; 2 Corinthians 1:3-7

II. Prepare For The Heavenly Home

- A. Our God Has Prepared Two Places For The Soul
 1. He Prepared A Place In His M_____ - John 14:1-4
 2. He Prepared A Place For The Devil And His Angels - Matthew 25:41
- B. If You Are Not A Child Of God – You Need To Be Prepared!
- C. If You Are A Child Of God, You Need To Live With A View Of E_____!
2 Peter 3:9-15

III. Prepare To Start Living

- A. Be The Child, Spouse, or Parent You Should Be.
- B. Be The Christian You Should Be. Use Your Circumstance For Others.
- C. Be The Person Whose LIFE Preaches Their Own F_____!
